At each of the European championship competitions there is a qualification on Saturday. Every competitor has to take part except, the top ten of the overall placing from the Eurojack. The best competitors from Saturday qualify themselves for the competition on Sunday. The top ten in the Eurojack professional series are automatically qualified for the finals. 20 competitors take part in the finals. The starting list will be composed by the top ten of the overall placing and the top ten of the Saturday qualification. If one professional can't take part, the following qualificant will take his or her place. The starting list will be announced before the finals.
